

Eliminate video content confusion, chasing emails and long conference calls

CLIPNOTES AND CLIPDRAW

The Visual Collaboration Solution

CLIPNOTES & CLIPDRAW are cross-platform, web-based video clip collaboration tools which solve all these communication problems and more. They are designed to help several people work on the same content across different locations.

CLIPNOTES & CLIPDRAW are ideal for:

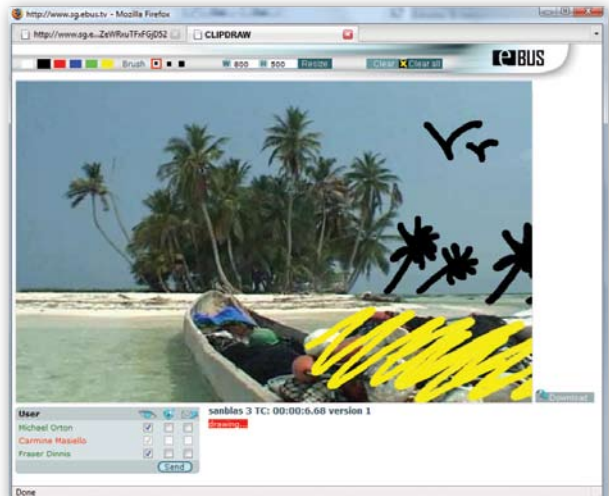

- TV commercial approvals
- VFX production
- Interactive demos
- Remote collaboration
- Rough-cut approval
- Cost estimating & bids

CLIPNOTES lets you add notes to specific frames and scenes which appear immediately on your collaborators' web view.

CLIPNOTES comments and replies build up into a blog-style history, which stays with the clip throughout your project, with email notification of new additions.

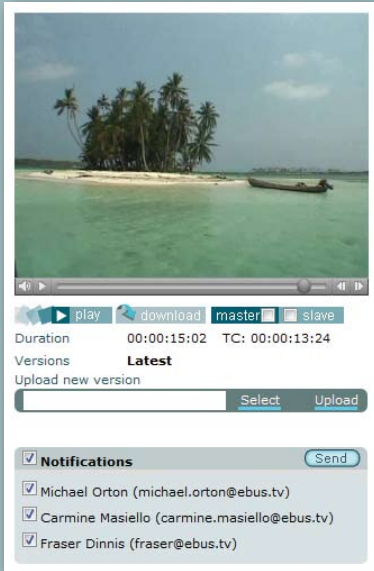

You can even browse a clip and have everyone's remote video "follow" yours.

CLIPDRAW is simple assistant that lets you and your invited users draw right on the video frame, in real-time. With a choice of colour and pen size for each user, everyone can add their own ideas and immediately view the result.

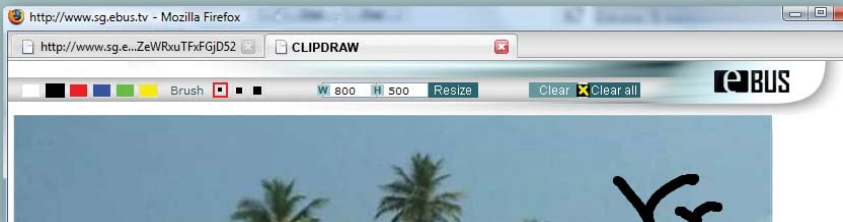

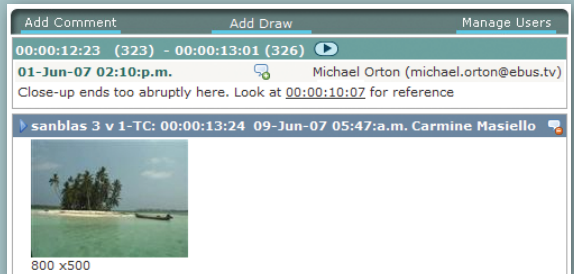

CLIPNOTES AND CLIPDRAW

The Visual Collaboration Solution

CLIPNOTES & CLIPDRAW feature these great tools:

- Frame- or scene- based comments
- Timecode hyperlinks to the exact frame in the video
- Timecode "grab" hyperlink to add to your comments
- Slave other users' remote clips to your master
- Live frame-based freehand drawing right on the video
- Download of original-quality video clip
- Version control: revisions have their own clip notes
- Email notification of changes and additions
- Simple management of access permissions
